

EXERCISE II—Sentence Completion

Complete the sentence in a way that shows you understand the meaning of the italicized vocabulary word.

1. When the ambulance pulled up, everyone knew that Kristen's hoax had...
2. The juggernaut of tanks rolled effortlessly through...
3. The Clarks revealed few marital problems, but I knew that...
4. Katie basked in the bright August sun until she...
5. The naïve young soldier had difficulty accepting...
6. The nocturnal raccoons waited until the camping family was asleep before ...
7. The zookeepers struggled to move the obstreperous lion to...
8. The fickle customers will not return to the store if...
9. Our genial neighbor always invites us...
10. Your levity in the present situation is...
11. No one ever would have guessed that the charlatan was not really a...
12. Mount Everest is not a place for novice...
13. The job might be mundane, but the city is...
14. Instead of attacking, the amicable natives...
15. Jules, an amateur chef, was entraptured by the master chef's invitation to...

EXERCISE II—Sentence Completion

Complete the sentence in a way that shows you understand the meaning of the italicized vocabulary word.

1. When the ambulance pulled up, everyone knew that Kristen's hoax had...
2. The juggernaut of tanks rolled effortlessly through...
3. The Clarks revealed few marital problems, but I knew that...
4. Katie basked in the bright August sun until she...
5. The naïve young soldier had difficulty accepting...
6. The nocturnal raccoons waited until the camping family was asleep before ...
7. The zookeepers struggled to move the obstreperous lion to...
8. The fickle customers will not return to the store if...
9. Our genial neighbor always invites us...
10. Your levity in the present situation is...
11. No one ever would have guessed that the charlatan was not really a...
12. Mount Everest is not a place for novice...
13. The job might be mundane, but the city is...
14. Instead of attacking, the amicable natives...
15. Jules, an amateur chef, was entraptured by the master chef's invitation to...