

EXERCISE II—Sentence Completion

Complete the sentence in a way that shows you understand the meaning of the italicized vocabulary word.

1. Carnivorous predatory animals will eat meat before they will eat...
2. The filthy tavern was full of pugnacious characters looking for...
3. Let's see if your proress during practice extends to the...
4. The rabble outside the governor's mansion chanted about the new policy on...
5. The tear gas easily quelled the protestors at...
6. The audience was engrossed with the old raconteur's accounts of...
7. Everyone knew that Colt was too pusillanimous to ever become a professional...
8. The quixotic Dexter thought that he alone could someday...
9. The new linguistics teacher claimed that writing was just as important as...
10. After three days of surviving in the wilderness, the co-pilot's rabid hunger drove her to...
11. The dressmaker piqued Linda by pointing out that she...
12. Still vindictive about losing the promotion to a younger associate, Elvira made life...
13. After he purloined the company secrets, Sol went to the competition and...
14. The precocious preschooler was already good at...
15. The greedy Duke never responded to the plebeian requests for...

EXERCISE II—Sentence Completion

Complete the sentence in a way that shows you understand the meaning of the italicized vocabulary word.

1. Carnivorous predatory animals will eat meat before they will eat...
2. The filthy tavern was full of pugnacious characters looking for...
3. Let's see if your proress during practice extends to the...
4. The rabble outside the governor's mansion chanted about the new policy on...
5. The tear gas easily quelled the protestors at...
6. The audience was engrossed with the old raconteur's accounts of...
7. Everyone knew that Colt was too pusillanimous to ever become a professional...
8. The quixotic Dexter thought that he alone could someday...
9. The new linguistics teacher claimed that writing was just as important as...
10. After three days of surviving in the wilderness, the co-pilot's rabid hunger drove her to...
11. The dressmaker piqued Linda by pointing out that she...
12. Still vindictive about losing the promotion to a younger associate, Elvira made life...
13. After he purloined the company secrets, Sol went to the competition and...
14. The precocious preschooler was already good at...
15. The greedy Duke never responded to the plebeian requests for...