

EXERCISE II—Sentence Completion

Complete the sentence in a way that shows you understand the meaning of the italicized vocabulary word.

1. Devon's rancor toward housework became obvious when his guests...
2. The cliché, "to tie the knot," actually means...
3. Aunt Rita's adamant belief in superstition causes her to...
4. A diffident person will probably never become...
5. The composer's latest opus will be played by...
6. Carol's ostensible purpose was charity, but she really wanted...
7. The disparity among our political opinions sometimes results in...
8. The clement jury found the defendant to be...
9. The Speedy-Mart manager extolled Jeremy for...
10. The advance of the invading forces seemed inexorable until...

Write on a separate sheet of paper.

EXERCISE II—Sentence Completion

Complete the sentence in a way that shows you understand the meaning of the italicized vocabulary word.

1. Devon's rancor toward housework became obvious when his guests...
2. The cliché, "to tie the knot," actually means...
3. Aunt Rita's adamant belief in superstition causes her to...
4. A diffident person will probably never become...
5. The composer's latest opus will be played by...
6. Carol's ostensible purpose was charity, but she really wanted...
7. The disparity among our political opinions sometimes results in...
8. The clement jury found the defendant to be...
9. The Speedy-Mart manager extolled Jeremy for...
10. The advance of the invading forces seemed inexorable until...

Write on a separate
sheet of paper.