Y	_
Lesson	minu
TC33011	DE VEII

1.	sincerity of human motives Keith made the cynical observation that Jarably just interested in his money.
	syn: sheptical	ant: idealistic; optimistic
2.	ambivalent (am biv´ə lənt) adj. having toward a person, thing, or idea; unable to de Doug felt ambivalent about his job; althou loved the challenge. syn: uncertain; wavering	ecide gh he hated the pressure, he
_	8	ant: certain; resolute
3.	demagogue (dem´ə gôg) n. a leader wl emotions to obtain power The demagogue evoked the sympathy of the office. syn: rabble-rouser
4.	demure (di myoor') adj. quiet and modes	st; reserved
	Her demure behavior was really a ruse to cov syn: prim	rer up her criminal nature. ant: indiscreet
5.	intrepid (in trep´īd) adj. without fear; b The intrepid warrior did not even flinch when syn: bold; fearless	rave the tiger leapt from the tree. ant: cowardly
6.	destitute (des' ti tōōt) adj. extremely poor food and shelter Because they had no insurance, they were leburned down.
5	syn: impoverished; penniless	ant: affluent
7.	erudite (er' yə dīt) adj. scholarly; learned Not much of a scholar, Justin was intimidated syn: educated	d by his erudite girlfriend. ant: unlettered; illiterate dilemma (di lem´ə) n. a choice between options Whether to repair my old car or purchase a n
9.	culmination (kul mə nā´ shən) n. the hiş	ghest point of attainment; the
	Winning the state tournament was the cult	nination of a great basketball season. syn: apex	ant: nadir
10.	concur (kən kûr') v. to be of the same of I concur that we should keep this meeting sh syn: support; agree

	Vocabulary Sketch
M8
	ŕ
E
	÷
	- AT
	*
10		